Synopsis

Great Gridiron Rivalries is an historical and spectacular look at some of college football's greatest rivalries. In Oklahoma versus Nebraska, also known as the "Heartland Classic" we will go back to the first game played in 1912, take you through the "Game of the Century" in 1971, and into the present day. You will see the big hits and bigger plays; legendary coaches Bud Wilkinson, Barry Switzer, Bob Devaney, Bob Stoops, and Tom Osborne; along with the players that made it happen. We'll showcase the big games that determined the National Champion or ruined unbeaten streaks along with the tradition and history associated with this classic rivalry!
